DIC Announces Relocation of Corporate Headquarters

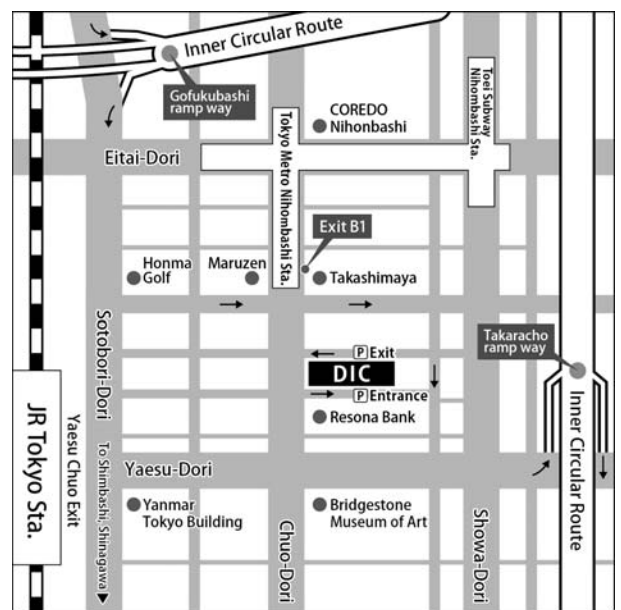

Tokyo, Japan—DIC announced today that it will move into its newly rebuilt corporate headquarters, the DIC Building in Tokyo's Nihonbashi district, effective from May 7, 2015. (The DIC Building is owned by Nissei Real-Estate Co., Ltd.)

DIC is confident that its newly rebuilt corporate headquarters will position it better to function as the global headquarters of the entire DIC Group. The move will also reinforce DIC's ability to drive business growth.

New address: DIC Building, 7-20, Nihonbashi 3-chome,
Chuo-ku, Tokyo 103-8233, Japan

Access: • JR: Tokyo Station, Yaesu Exit (4-minute walk)
• Tokyo Metro, Toei Subway:
Nihonbashi Station Exit B1 (2-minute walk)

Date of relocation: May 7, 2015
