DIC Corporation

DIC Group to participate in Chinaplas 2018, the 32nd International Exhibition on Plastics and Rubber Industries

DIC announced today that it will participate, together with wholly owned subsidiary DIC (Shanghai) Co., Ltd., in Chinaplas 2018, the 32nd International Exhibition on Plastics and Rubber Industries, which will be held in Shanghai. The exhibition, which in 2017 welcomed 3,400-plus exhibiting companies and more than 150,000 visitors, is Asia's top plastics and rubber trade fair.

The DIC booth at Chinaplas 2018 will showcase DIC.PPS engineering plastics, which boast outstanding heat resistance and excellent chemical resistance, are used in automotive, electrical and electronics components, among others.
